

LIFE ELECTION

You can vote for a special person, putting an "x" before the candidate you would prefer to be elected. You can only choose one of the candidates below and nobody else.

- ☐ 1. Jesus, carpenter, Nazareth.
- ☐ 2. Mohammad, tradesman, Mekka.
- ☐ 3. Buddha, prince, Lumbini.
- ☐ 4. Richard Dawkins, biologist, Oxford.
- ☐ 5. Don't know.

Our lives are filled with many opportunities to make choices. We choose education, partner, career, yoghurt flavour... but what choice is the most important one? We all have a worldview. How aware are we of it? Who are we following? Have we even made a conscious choice or are we just thinking what others have told us to think?

We who made this "ballot" do not believe that can earn our way to heaven or that violence is acceptable like Muhammad taught. We do not believe that the extinction of feeling pleasure or love is the meaning of life, as Buddha taught. We do not believe that death is the end or that our moral convictions of right and wrong are mere random imaginations, as Richard Dawkins argues.

We vote for number one on the list, Jesus. We have met him and we know that he is just as wonderful as the first disciples asserted.

Who do you vote for?
